strives to encourage dynamic learning processes through the arts. Creativity and children's art studios in Reggio Emilia The Language of Art in Reggio-Inspired Classrooms. For many, art in a classroom is seen as a finished product made of paint, clay, or collage materials, but for others, art refers to spontaneous, open-ended, and often messy explorations with little to no direction from the teacher. At The Compass School, we use the word “art” to describe a lively process of engagement that is reflective, creative and deliberate and that deepens and extends the children’s learning.
