initiated by responder following partner's notrump opening bid that requests opener rebid in the suit ranked just above that bid by responder. Jacoby transfer - Rules and strategy of bridge card games Jacoby transfers may be done with any strength hand and always require a 5-card suit. Since a natural notrump opening has at worst a single doubleton, there is a chance (roughly 25%) of a 7-card fit, but much more likely is an 8-card or better fit. The primary reason for using transfers is to keep the stronger hand hidden.
