The hot runner up to this book is Stylish Dress Book: Wear with Freedom and my verdict is still out which one I like better. They are both very similar, but different. I find the graphics are actually better and simpler in the Wear with Freedom ones, but that might be because the dresses are simpler in construction. Chronicle Books Stylish Dress Book: Simple Smocks, Dresses ... Some of the dresses are stylish in a sweet, retro way, but a few look like children's clothing sized to fit adults, making them a little too precious-looking for most adults to wear. The directions for assembling the garments assume significant knowledge of clothing construction--there is no basic how-to information provided.
